

I think it is wrong to allow a greater concentration of ownership of media. These companies are not concerned with the local communities they are in and apparently neither are YOU!! Only the money, honey! It will hurt one of the basic foundations this country was built upon--free speech.